PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

SECTION 51 MANUAL OF REGENERATIVE SPACE NPC

This Manual is published in terms of Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000) ("the Act"). The Act gives effect to the provisions of Section 32 of the Constitution, which provides for the right of access to information held by the State and/or held by a private person or entity where such information is required to protect rights.

OVERVIEW

Regenerative SPACE is a non-profit company working in the crossover between social development and environmental conservation. We aim to build resilience at the local level through nature-based solutions that includes addressing socio-environmental challenges through a circular green economy, as well as addressing biodiversity loss.

This manual serves to inform members of the public of the categories of information we hold, and which may, subject to the grounds of refusal listed in the Act, be disclosed after evaluation of an access application being made in terms of the Act.

AVAILABILITY OF THIS MANUAL

A copy of this manual is available -

- On request from our Information Officer, details below.
- On our website: www.regenerative-space.org
- From the South African Human Rights Commission ("SAHRC") or once the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 ("POPI Act") comes into effect, from the Information Regulator: <https://www.justice.gov.za/infoereg/index.html>

This Manual will be updated from time to time, as and when required.

OUR INFORMATION OFFICER

Our Information Officer is:

Grant Benn, Executive Director: Spatial Technologies and Innovation

HOW TO REQUEST ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY REGENERATIVE SPACE

Requests for access to records held by Regenerative SPACE must be made on the request form that is attached to this Manual or available from our website or from: https://www.justice.gov.za/forms/paia/J752_paia_Form%20C.pdf, attached as Annexure A, ("Request Form").

When a record is requested, the following will apply:

- Fees may be payable as prescribed by law.
- The Request Form must be completed by the Requester. On the Request Form all details must be completed, including the right the requester wants to protect by requesting the information and WHY access to the information is required.
- If the requester is acting on behalf of someone else, the signature of the other person as the one who has authorised the request must be provided. In order to verify this, we may require further proof such as an identify document or may call the person whose information it is to verify that s/he has given permission for the other person to access the information on his/her behalf.
- The requester must state in which format (inspection of copy, paper copy, electronic copy, transcript, etc.) s/he wants to access the information.
- If the record is part of another record, the requester will only be able to access the part(s) that pertains to the information s/he wants or is entitled to, and not the rest of the record.

All requests will be evaluated against the provisions of the Act. The Information Officer to refuse access on grounds stipulated in the Act. One can, for example, not access another person's confidential information, or trade- or commercial secrets of a business. An answer on a request for information must be provided within 30 days of the request and if not granted and the requester is not satisfied, s/he can approach the courts within 30 days.

HOW THE PROMORION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT WORKS

Section 50 of the Act provides that a requester may be provided access to records of a private body, if the record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. If a public body lodges a request, to access to a record of a private body for the exercise or protection of any rights, other than its rights, it must be acting in the public interest. Requests under the Act must be made in terms of the procedures prescribed by the Act, at the rates provided. For further information on the Act and how it works, a Guide initially developed by the Human Rights Commission and to be updated from time to time by the Information Regulator will be published by the Information Regulator.
